Lecture 18: Recursion and Recursive function

Recursion and recursive function :

When a function itself it calls itself it is called recursion and the function which is calling itself is called a recursive function.

- The recursive function consist of base case and otherwise it will never stop